SUBJECT CHOICE

Depending on the length and intensity you select, it is possible to cover up to six subjects (each half day tuition covers one subject per week). To maximise the benefit from your revision course, it is vital that the information regarding the examination board and exact specification you are studying is correct. If you are unsure of your board and specification please contact your subject teacher at school. The information you provide will be used as a platform on which our tutors can design the right course for you.
